KEN SHERWOOD ‘S CORNER

Branching Out On Arbor Day

On Arbor Day we celebrate,
The value of our trees.
Tranquil settings they create,
Swaying in the breeze.

Beauty the magnolia brings,
Flowers in the sky.
Announcing birth of another spring.
Magnificent to the eye.

Sharing her ample shade,
Shielding us from the sun.
Stopping harmful UV ray,
That’s not all she’s done.

Slowing down erosion,
Trapping soil with her roots.
Protecting rivers and oceans,
Just one of her attributes.

Controlling heavy winds,
Slowing to a breeze.
Cooler air she sends,
Through her plentiful leaves.

Converting carbon dioxide,
To oxygen we can breathe.
One more treasure she hides,
Simple value of a tree.

Celebrate this Arbor Day,
By planting a small tree.
One simple act can lead the way,
To cool air and breathing free.

Ken Shearwood

APRIL'S

BUSINESS OF THE MONTH

Front Street Chop Shop

Hey! I started cutting my own hair when I was 18 and found out I really enjoyed it, so I wanted to pursue a career out of it. The goal was always for me to make it back home to open a shop after I finished barber school. It happened a lot faster than I would've ever expected. I am currently the only person at the shop, but if everything goes as planned, I will have another barber cutting alongside me at the beginning of 2025!
